

FREE SCREENING! THE AWARD-WINNING FILM

ADOPTED: for the life of me

What are the costs of secrets that last an entire lifetime? Join the debate about adoption reform!

What if you had to go through your whole life without knowing anything about your own past – and being told you have no right to information about yourself? ADOPTED: for the life of me invites you on a journey with Dave and Joe, two middle-aged men determined to unearth their origins. The heart-wrenching and heartwarming conclusions of their stories provoke a debate about adoption laws and policies which differ state-by-state across the country. Please join us for a free screening...

DATE:

TIME:

WHERE: